Charlize Theranos is an online shopping assistant at a supermarket. Her day begins with a 3 AM wake-up call for her 4 AM start. She drives to her workplace and comes into contact with dozens of people every day.

When Theranos first started working at her local supermarket, she was a cashier. But soon, she was asked to switch to online shopping. Her main duty is picking up items from the supermarket's shelves for delivery. First, she picks up an iPad listing all the customer orders placed that day, and starts walking up and down the aisles, scanning the products she needs. Then she places them in a box that will be packed up and delivered to someone's front door.

When the supermarket opens at 8:30 AM, shoppers start coming in. Theranos needs to try to avoid them as she continues scanning products, and occasionally answering questions. The eight-hour shifts are sometimes stressful. People rush in to buy food and supplies, causing arguments and upsetting staff. However, most people are polite and respectful. Consequently, Charlize enjoys her job, and her line of work has become an essential service.
