A local community in England

In England, many local communities are close-knit and active in improving their surroundings. Take the small town of Harrowfield, for example. The residents there often work together on community projects, such as planting trees, renovating playgrounds, and organizing local fairs. Harrowfield also has a community garden where people grow vegetables and share them with their neighbors.

The Harrowfield community center is a popular place for social gatherings. It offers free classes, including art, cooking, and fitness. The center is run by volunteers who give their time to make sure everything runs smoothly. Local events, such as summer festivals and charity runs, bring people together and raise funds for community projects.

In Harrowfield, social media plays a big role in keeping everyone connected. There is a local Facebook group where residents share updates about local events, ask for help, or even give away items they no longer need. However, residents still value face-to-face interactions, especially at events like the weekly farmer's market.

23. The people of Harrowfield often work together on community projects.
24. Harrowfield's community center charges money for all its classes.
25. Volunteers play an important role in running the community center.
26. The local Facebook group is the only way residents communicate.
27. How is social media used in Harrowfield?
- A. To replace in-person interactions.                      B. To share news and connect people.
C. To organize local charity events only.                D. To advertise local businesses.
28. All of the following statements are mentioned in the reading passage EXCEPT _____.
