Food Preferences

My Family's Food Preferences

Hi! My name is Emma, and I really love food. I love French fries, and so does my mom. We both enjoy salty snacks very much. I also like spicy food, and so does my dad. He always adds hot sauce to his meals!
I can cook simple meals, and so can my brother. We sometimes make hamburgers together on weekends. My sister can't eat spicy food, and neither can my mom. They prefer bland and healthy meals instead.
I don't like greasy food, and neither does my sister. We both prefer salads and grilled chicken. My father loves rich desserts like chocolate cake, and so do I. Chocolate cake is our favorite dessert.
My brother doesn't enjoy vegetables, and neither do I. However, my mom loves healthy food, and so does my grandmother. They always prepare delicious vegetable soup for dinner.
In my family, we all have different food preferences, but we enjoy sharing meals together and trying new foods.

Using "So do I / So am I / So can I"
We use SO + auxiliary/modal + subject to agree with affirmative sentences.

I love sushi. → So do I.

She is hungry. → So am I

Using "Neither do I / Neither am I / Neither can I"
We use NEITHER + auxiliary/modal + subject to agree with negative sentences.

I don't like onions. → Neither do I.

He can't cook. → Neither can I.
