
Activity 7: Read the following reasons for refusing a job offer. Tick the suitable ones.

1. I cannot accept your offer because the salary is quite low, not enough for my monthly expenses.
2. I must decline your offer to pursue my objective career.
3. After considering very carefully, I have made a decision to continue my dream to become a Marketing Director.
4. I am sorry, but your company is far from my home, so I must reject the job offer extended to me.
5. I did not know before that I would have to work overtime if I took over this post. Sorry that I could not do this job.
6. I have no choice but to decline your offer for a private reason.
7. I do not want to work for your company anymore, so I reject your offer.
8. The interview with you last week helped me to know more about the job requirements, and I think that I should continue finding another job that is more suitable for my abilities.
9. I think the working environment in your company is not suitable for me.
