Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct answer to each of the following questions

City life is exciting and full of energy. People enjoy living in a big city because there is always something to do. You can find a wide range of entertainment options, such as visiting theatres, exploring museums, and being involved in concerts. There are also many festivals and events throughout the year that bring people together and create a lively atmosphere. Shopping in the city is another great experience, with a variety of different shops, boutiques, and large malls.

However, city life has its disadvantages too. One major issue is air pollution, which can be harmful to our health and the environment. Housing prices are often very high, making it expensive to live in the city. Some people choose to live in the suburbs because it is quieter and less crowded. In the suburbs, houses are usually bigger and more affordable. However, living in the suburbs means that you may have to travel more to enjoy all the activities and attractions that the city offers.

Many people want a balance between city and suburban life. They may live close enough to the city to enjoy the fun things but far enough away to avoid the problems. This way, they can enjoy the best of both worlds: the excitement of the city and the peace of the suburbs.

Question 31. What is the main idea of the passage?

A. City life and suburban life have both benefits and drawbacks.
B. Living in the suburbs is always better than living in the city.
