

Read the sentences and choose the correct option.

Example: I don't like maths.

I think maths is

- a) bored b) boring

1. You are doing your homework and your younger brothers and sisters are running around.

You are

- a) annoyed b) annoying

2. You are doing your English homework and can't understand what you need to do in the exercise.

The task is

- a) confused b) confusing

3. I am going on holiday to the Maldives next week.

I am so

- a) excited b) exciting

4. We had a test last week and my result was very good.

The result was

- a) surprised b) surprising

5. Last week we went on a quest. The quest was in a very dark room and there were a lot of snakes and spiders in it.

The room was

- a) frightened b) frightening

6. When I was a child I liked dinosaurs a lot. I read many books and watched films about them.

I was really

- a) interested b) interesting

7. I am flying to the USA. The flight takes 12 hours.

I think the flight is

- a) tired b) tiring