

Every summer, teenagers from different countries _____ (travel) to Green Future Camp, a special camp that focuses on protecting the _____. The camp is famous _____ its eco-friendly activities and environmental _____. Many students join because they are worried _____ climate change and want to reduce _____ in their cities.

This week, Leo and Emma _____ (stay) with a local family in a small _____ near the mountains. They usually prefer hotels, but this year they _____ (try) a different kind of _____ because they want a more authentic cultural experience. Leo is very interested _____ learning new languages, while Emma is really keen _____ photography.

Every morning, the campers _____ (volunteer) in different environmental projects. Some students clean rivers, while others organize a climate _____ in the town square. Right now, a group of teenagers _____ (paint) posters for tomorrow's environmental _____.

Emma normally _____ (be) very organized, but today she _____ (make) a huge _____ because she forgot her _____ and cannot enter the camp building. At the moment, she _____ (look) inside her backpack while her friend Noah _____ (try) to help her.

Noah is very good _____ computers and technology. He always carries his _____ and spends hours typing on the _____. However, he sometimes _____ (be) bad _____ sports and outdoor activities.

Meanwhile, the camp leaders _____ (prepare) an eco-friendly science fair. The students usually _____ (do) experiments and presentations, but today they _____ (work) on a special recycling _____.

At the shopping _____ near the camp, some students _____ (buy) snacks and souvenirs. Olivia _____ (look) for a new _____ because she lost her keys yesterday. Her brother Sam _____ (write) a _____ for their grandmother while they wait for the bus.

Tonight, everyone _____ (meet) around the campfire. Some teenagers _____ (play) a _____ on their phones, while others _____ (talk) about their travel experiences. Leo _____ (feel) nervous because he usually _____ (be) afraid _____ speaking in public, but tonight he _____ (give) a speech about climate change.

At the end of the evening, the campers _____ (feel) proud _____ their work because they know small actions can make a big difference for the environment.