PART 5: MULTIPLE CHOICE CLOZE

Choose the correct answer A, B, C or D.

WAITER!

I went to the cinema last week and laughed all the way through the new film Waiter!, which is (1) _____ in a restaurant. American actor Tom Waters plays the worst cook the world has ever seen and he employs one of the worst waiters, played by Joe Vermont.

The London restaurant where the filming took place does actually exist. Jane Connors, the owner, runs a successful business with many (2) _____ customers. However, although she thinks Waiter! is a good film, she is very annoyed with the director.

When she agreed to the filming, she wasn't told that the film is about a restaurant where everything goes wrong and the food is disgusting. Although the film might make Jane's restaurant famous if it is a (3) _____, she is afraid that people will stop coming because they will think the food and service are terrible.

Jane is worried she will lose business and may even have to close down and (4) _____ again with a new restaurant.

Having seen the film, I agree that she has a problem. The film company paid her a very small fee, and she has since asked for more. The best (5) _____, though, is for her to contact the newspapers.

I am sure they will be interested in her story and it will actually help her business in the (6) _____.

The film is full of funny scenes and clever dialogue, so it is easy to see why many people have a good (7) _____ of it. Tom Waters gives an excellent performance as the terrible cook, while Joe Vermont is equally amusing as the waiter.

Although the story is sometimes unrealistic, the actors work well (8) _____ and make the audience laugh from beginning to end. The restaurant owner, however, is still worried about the possible (9) _____ on her business.

In my opinion, the film is well worth seeing because it is both entertaining and highly (10) _____.
