

Exercise 1. Put the verbs in the correct passive form

1. Thousands of smartphones _____ (sell) in this shop every year.
2. A new sports centre _____ (build) near our school at the moment.
3. The final report _____ already _____ (write) before the meeting started.
4. Several valuable paintings _____ (steal) from the museum last weekend.
5. While the concert was taking place, free drinks _____ (give) to the guests.
6. The missing documents _____ not _____ (find) yet by the police.
7. All applications _____ (send) before Friday afternoon.
8. The exam results _____ (show) on the website tomorrow morning.
9. Mobile phones _____ not _____ (bring) into the exam room.
10. More money _____ (give) to local hospitals these days.
11. New houses _____ (build) in this area every year.
12. At the moment, free meals _____ (give) to homeless people.
13. Before the president arrived, all the guests _____ already _____ (take) to their seats.
14. Important information _____ (write) in the scientist's notebook last year.
15. Fresh flowers _____ always _____ (bring) to the hotel reception.

Exercise 2. Change the sentences from active to passive

1. Someone stole several expensive paintings from the city museum.

2. The company is building a new bridge near the river.

3. Scientists have found an ancient ship under the sea.

4. The storm broke several windows in the old school yesterday.

5. People speak English at most international meetings.

6. The organizers were giving free tickets to students before the concert.

7. The manager had already written the report before the meeting.

8. The school will show the results next Monday.

9. Visitors can bring small bags into the stadium.

10. All employees must follow the new safety rules.

11. Someone took my passport at the train station.

12. The charity organization is giving free food to poor families.

13. The guide gave the tourists detailed maps of the city.

14. The police had found the missing child before midnight.

15. People should give more support to young athletes.

