

How Can We Tell People About Plastic Pollution in the Oceans?

Name: _____

Class: _____

A. Match the Questions and Answers

Write the correct letter (A–F).

Questions

1. What is so special about the oceans?
2. What is the issue?
3. Why is it a problem?
4. Who caused the problem?
5. How does plastic get into the oceans?
6. What can we do about it?

Answers

- A. Reduce, reuse, recycle.
- B. Humans make plastic and throw it away carelessly.
- C. Plastic pollution in the oceans.
- D. Wind blows plastic into rivers and oceans.
- E. Plastic harms sea creatures and the environment.
- F. Oceans provide oxygen and are home to amazing wildlife.

B. Choose the Correct Answer

1. What is the main environmental problem in the lesson?
 - a. Air pollution
 - b. Plastic pollution in oceans
 - c. Noise pollution
 - d. Deforestation
2. Why are oceans important?
 - a. They make roads
 - b. They create plastic
 - c. They provide oxygen
 - d. They stop raining
3. Who causes most plastic pollution?
 - a. Animals
 - b. Humans
 - c. Trees
 - d. Fish

4. How does plastic enter the oceans?
 - a. Through volcanoes
 - b. Through rivers and wind
 - c. Through caves
 - d. Through mountains
5. What does “reduce, reuse, recycle” help to do?
 - a. Increase rubbish
 - b. Protect oceans
 - c. Catch fish
 - d. Build hotels

C. True or False

1. Plastic disappears quickly in the ocean. _____
2. Oceans are home to many living things. _____
3. A role play can teach people about pollution. _____
4. Teamwork is important in group activities. _____
5. Manta rays are dangerous to humans. _____