

Unit 5.2

Write a dialogue.

Vocabulary & Grammar

Write the words in the boxes as in example:

- Weather rain storm snow

1 List the words below under the headings from the mildest to the strongest. Which of these weather phenomena are common in your country?

- rain • fog • drizzle • storm • snow • ice
- heatwave • downpour • gust • flood • frost
- gale • hurricane • hail • drought • cyclone
- monsoon • sunny

2 Choose the correct word. Then translate the sentences into Russian.

- It was only pouring/drizzling lightly but we still got wet through.
- It was baking/flaming hot under the midday sun so we stayed indoors.
- Be careful of that saucepan – the soup is boiling/beaming hot!
- The rain beamed/poured down and the road became like a river.
- After a night with temperatures below zero, the frost glowed/sparkled in the morning sun.
- They looked at the thick/wide clouds and realised it was going to rain.
- That new boy in my class looks very bright/shining.
- The storm was so fierce/angry that dozens of trees were uprooted in our area.

Listening & Speaking

- 3 Listen to two people talking about their holiday. Where does the dialogue take place? What exactly are they talking about? How do they feel? Write your answer

Everyday English

- Annoyance/Sympathy

- 4 Work in pairs. You were away at the weekend but you didn't enjoy it. Use phrases from the table below to act out your dialogue.

Expressing annoyance	Express sympathy
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> What a dreadful/terrible ... It wasn't very ..., was it? They could at least ... 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> It's a pity. I'm so sorry. Oh, dear! That's a shame.

- Idioms

- 5 Explain the idioms in bold. Are there similar ones in your language? Which idiom best describes the picture?

- I got caught in a downpour and was soaked to the skin.
- The coast guard has to go out in all weathers.
- John doesn't feel well, he's under the weather.
- It wasn't a serious argument, just a storm in a teacup, really.
- Katie puts some money in the bank every month for a rainy day.

- Problems

6 Choose the correct word.

- Most teenagers will feel some peer pressure/force at one time or another.
- Karl hasn't got many friends because he has a rather selfish attitude/behaviour at times.
- People who lack/miss self-esteem have problems feeling good about themselves.
- Going through school with no friends was a hurtful/painful experience for him.
- She looked to her elder sister to be her role model/partner.
- At his new school he had to adopt/adapt his behaviour to fit in with everyone.