1. Read the article about an unusual café. Six sentences have been removed from the article. Choose from the sentences A–G the one which fits each gap. There is one extra sentence.

A famous Hollywood star visited a café in Edinburgh recently. People took 'selfie' photos with the actor and the staff were very excited because one of the most famous people on the planet was visiting them! But this is not an ordinary café. (1) ..... The café has something called 'a suspended coffee and food plan'. (2) ..... And when a customer visits the café ten times, the café will give a homeless person a free meal and a hot drink.

We see homeless people every day in the big cities, but sometimes we don't want to see them. Maybe we think they are lazy or that they are homeless because they don't want to work. But that isn't true. (3) ..... Then they had to sleep on the roads or under bridges and ask people for food and money. Some of the people who work in the café in Edinburgh were homeless in the past but now they have a chance to have a better life.

The actor had something to eat and gave some money to the café while he was there. (4) ..... There are more cafés like the one in Edinburgh. (5) ..... So next time you want to have a sandwich or something hot to drink, try to find one that does something to help people in need. (6) ..... .

A Many homeless people had a life like ours, but something happened and they lost everything.

B His visit to the café showed that it is easy to help people.

C It is special because it helps homeless people.

D Maybe there is one near you.

E But it is very expensive for the café.

F Customers can pay for a hot drink or snack for a homeless person to have later.

G Not only because you will feel good, but also because life can be hard for all of us sometimes.

2. Read the article again and choose the best answers, A, B or C.

1 The café is unusual because the customers

A are famous.

B help homeless people.

C work in the café.

2 Customers can help homeless people

A after ten visits.

B every time they visit.

C when someone famous visits.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3 Some people think homeless people

A should stay away from cafés.

B don't really need help.

C don't want to help themselves.

4 Some of the people who work in the café

A didn't have anywhere to live in the past.

B don't have anywhere to live at the moment.

C don't have enough money for food.

5 The actor visited the café because he wanted

A something to eat.

B to give some food to homeless people.

C to help homeless people.

6 You can visit cafés like this one

A in other places, too.

B only in Edinburgh.

C only when you need to help someone

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS