A Busy Week in Maria's Life

Maria live in San Pedro Sula with her aunt and two cousins. Every day, she wake up at 6:00 a.m. and take a shower before breakfast. She usually eat eggs and coffee in the morning, but sometimes she don't have enough time to cook. After breakfast, Maria go to work by bus. She work at a clothing store in the city center, and she really enjoy helping customers. Her manager say she is a very responsible employee because she always arrive on time.

During the week, Maria have many responsibilities at home. She clean the kitchen, wash the dishes, and help her younger cousin with homework. Her cousins doesn't help very much, so Maria sometimes feel tired and stressed. In Mondays and Wednesdays, she also take English classes online because she woulds like improve her communication skills. She think English are very important for her future career.

On weekends, Maria usually spend time with her family. Every Saturday, they eats lunch together at her grandmother's house on 12:00 p.m. Her grandmother cook delicious traditional food, and everyone bring desserts or drinks. After lunch, they sometimes play board games or watch movies in the night. Maria's uncle don't likes horror movies, so they usually choose comedies instead.

Maria also have a boyfriend named Carlos. He live in another neighborhood, but they often talk on the phone at night. Carlos would likes travel to Copán with Maria during the holidays because they enjoy visiting new places together. However, Maria don't have many free time because she work a lot during the week.

Even though Maria's life is very busy, she always try to stay positive. She believe family and education is very important, and she would like have a better future one day.

LIVEWORKSHEETS