

Make It Simple!

Instructions

Read each situation carefully and respond as if you are speaking or writing to a client with no legal background.

Your answer should:

- be clear and simple,
- sound professional,
- avoid difficult legal jargon,
- and help the client understand the situation easily.

GENDER:

AGE:

FIRST LANGUAGE:

FIELD OF LAW:

PEER REVIEW (OPTIONAL)

Refer to the module for the checklist. Let your peer review your answer and give marks based on the checklist.

You may answer in 2–4 sentences in the box provided under each picture.

A client asks:
"What does 'breach of contract' mean?"

Blank area for writing the answer to question 1.

Explain this legal sentence to a client:
"The matter has been adjourned pending further documentation."

Blank area for writing the answer to question 2.

Explain this legal phrase simply:
"The agreement remains legally enforceable."

Blank area for writing the answer to question 3.

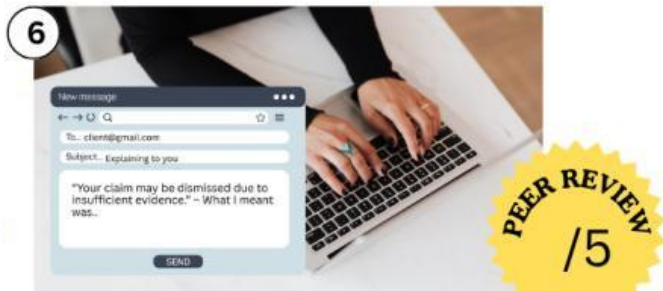

Explain this legal sentence:
"The defendant failed to comply with the court order."

Blank area for writing the answer to question 4.

A client asks:
"What does 'settlement' mean?"

Blank area for writing the answer to question 5.

Explain this sentence to a client:
"Your claim may be dismissed due to insufficient evidence."

Blank area for writing the answer to question 6.