HUICHAPAN

Hi! It's a pleasure to write to you again. I have yet returned from a beautiful place, its name is Huichapan. I've spent an incredible time with my friends there. I have visited it twice in my life. But, let me tell you about it.

Huichapan is located on the west of Hidalgo. It is classified as Pueblo Mágico, it has been a Pueblo Mágico since 2012. There is a place called El Chapitel, this is where the Mexican Independence day was celebrated for the first time in 1821.

The first time I visited Huichapan was with my family. We went to El Jardín Central, which is downtown. Over there we saw the monument of the General Julián Villagrán. Also, we tasted the hand-made ice cream, and let me tell you that I have ever tasted such a delicious ice cream.

My second visit was with my friends, as I already told you. It has been a different experience because it was a little more adventurous. We went to El Saucillo, which is a fantastic ecotouristic park. There is a famous aqueduct; we have never seen such an amazing place. We went rock climbing and on the zip line. We enjoyed it a lot.

Have you ever visited Huichapan? If not, you should!!!

A "Pueblo Mágico" is a place that is rich in history and culture; such as important history events, legends, etc. All of this helps to foster the tourism in the area.
