LISTENING PART 2

DRAG & DROP VOCABULARY

1.

Woman: You're late, Kevin. Was the (1) _____ bad?

Boy: No worse than usual, miss. I set my (2) _____ for 7.30 which gives me enough time to have some breakfast and get to school. But this morning, I couldn't find my (3) _____ which I've got to (4) _____ today.

Man: Can I borrow your Computer World (5) _____?

Woman: Yes, you can keep it. I've finished with it. It's the one magazine I read as soon as it comes on Tuesdays. I get Fashion Today as well, but I read it if and when I have the time, which means I often throw it away (6) _____!

Woman: Thank you, but I think I'll start buying it myself. I must get (7) _____ for the summer!

3.

Woman: As it's your birthday, you can choose where we eat tonight. Your dad did (8) _____ the burger place in town.

Boy: To be honest, I'm happy to stay in, have a pizza, and watch a film together. Or we could go for a (9) _____ by the river...

Woman: I don't think the (10) _____'s good for this evening.

4.

Man: Book now for the series of spring (11) _____ at the Lloyd Theatre. Our varied program will start with an (12) _____ evening on the 17th. As usual, there's no (13) _____ for this first event but tickets are limited.
On the 18th there's a concert by the Youth (14) _____ and on the 20th an evening with The Dolphins, the (15) _____ from Liverpool.

5.

Girl: I really don't know what to give Mrs Allemano when I go and stay with her in New York. Do you think she'd like some (16) _____?

Man: Well, you don't know her very well, do you, so I'd choose something like a scarf, or just a box of (17) _____.

6.

Woman: Does your house seem empty now your sister's left home, Joe?

Man: Not really, My (18) _____'s moved into her room, and she doesn't go out much. It's really nice having her there because my father never comes home until late, and if my mother's out for the evening, grandma cooks (19) _____ for me.

Boy: Anyway, I had to walk back home and my mum gave me a (20) _____ here.

Good luck! ☺
