READING – FILL IN THE BLANK
(DRAG & DROP)

WORD BANK

record	positive	entrepreneur	compete	active
prosthetic leg	take part	determination	competitor	respect
future	Paralympian	blade	honour	disadvantage
para-athletics	achievement	injure	competitive	charity

Ntando Mahlangu is a young South African (1) _____ who became famous after winning a silver medal at the Paralympics in Rio. He received his first running (2) _____ from a children's (3) _____ called Jumping Kids.

Before getting his blades, Ntando could not walk long distances and sometimes felt at a (4) _____ when playing football with his friends. However, he always stayed very (5) _____ and never gave up.

Only a few years later, he became one of the youngest (6) _____ at the Rio Paralympics and started to (7) _____ in competitions for para-athletes.

Ntando has already broken a world (8) _____ and won several medals. Even though he is very successful, he says it is an (9) _____ to achieve his goals.

Ntando also has a very (10) _____ attitude towards life. He believes that anyone can make a change in society if they show kindness and (11) _____ to other people.

Although he hopes to do well in the (12) _____, Ntando understands that athletes can sometimes (13) _____ themselves before important competitions.

At the moment, Ntando continues to train hard and (14) _____ in important (15) _____ competitions around the world.

"It's not about having the ability, it's about having the will." – Ntando Mahlangu

BELIEVE ACHIEVE
INSPIRE

LIVEWORKSHEETS