

MIXED CONDITIONALS

Complete the gaps in the sentences with the correct structure of the mixed conditionals.

- A. If I _____ (study) harder at university, I _____ (have) a better job now.
- B. If she _____ (not spend) all her money last month, she _____ (can go) on holiday with us now.
- C. If they _____ (be) more organised people, they _____ (not forget) the meeting yesterday.
- D. If we _____ (leave) earlier, we _____ (arrive) by now.
- E. If he _____ (know) how to cook, he _____ (make) dinner for us last night.
- F. If you _____ (listen) to me yesterday, you _____ (not be) in trouble now.
- G. If I _____ (be) taller, I _____ (become) a basketball player years ago.
- H. If she _____ (take) the medicine, she _____ (feel) better now.

I. If they _____ (not miss) the train, they _____ (be) here now.

J. If I _____ (have) more confidence, I _____ (apply) for that job last year.

K. If Tom _____ (not stay up) so late every night, he _____ (not be) so tired this morning.

L. If we _____ (buy) that house in 2020, we _____ (live) near the beach now.

M. If she _____ (speak) French fluently, she _____ (understand) the conversation yesterday.

N. If I _____ (not break) my leg last month, I _____ (play) football today.

O. If they _____ (be) more careful drivers, they _____ (not have) the accident yesterday.

P. If you _____ (save) more money in the past, you _____ (not worry) about bills now.

Q. If he _____ (not be) so shy, he _____ (talk) to her at the party last night.

R. If we _____ (check) the weather forecast, we _____ (not be) stuck in the storm now.

S. If I _____ (know) about the concert, I _____ (go) with you yesterday.

T. If she _____ (exercise) regularly, she _____ (not feel) exhausted all the time.