Dear Agony Aunt,

I'm very upset because I've <sup>1</sup>_____ with my friend, Jason. I met him a few years ago and <sup>2</sup>_____ him very quickly because we <sup>3</sup>_____ the same things: sports, films and video games. We've always <sup>4</sup>_____, even though we don't go to the same school. Jason is a bit older than me and he's a really good student, so I've always <sup>5</sup>_____ him. I can't believe that just because I couldn't meet him after school, now he doesn't answer my texts. I thought I could always <sup>6</sup>_____ him to be a good friend.

Please help!

Yours sincerely,

Petra

6 Complete the text with the words below in the correct form.

ancestor    belong    dependable    descendant extended family    extrovert    generous good listener    sociable

One of my <sup>1</sup>_____ (my great-great grandmother) was a very kind and <sup>2</sup>_____ woman who gave her <sup>3</sup>_____ (her children and grandchildren) her house and most of her money while she was still alive. She had three children and nine grandchildren, and she had a large <sup>4</sup>_____ with many cousins and nieces and nephews. They all got something and she kept just enough money for herself. She then spent the rest of her life travelling. She was an <sup>5</sup>_____ who loved meeting new people and who said she didn't <sup>6</sup>_____ in just one place. She was very <sup>7</sup>_____, always ready for a party. People said she was a <sup>8</sup>_____ and they could always go to her with their problems. They also said she was very <sup>9</sup>_____ - if she said she was going to do something you could be sure that she would. I would like to have a close friend like her. She sounds amazing!

7 Find out about one of your ancestors or someone in your extended family. Write a paragraph about them using as many words from this page as you can.
