QUIZ 3 VOCABULARY- UNIT 1: OUTLOOK AND BEHAVIOR

A. Read what each person says or does. Match them with the correct Word.

Word Bank A: Optimist, Pessimist, Realist, Easygoing, Hardworking, Outgoing, Talkative, Serious

1. Tom: "I study for four hours every night and always finish my homework early."
   - 👉 He is _____
2. Sarah: "Don't worry about the rain! I'm sure the sun will come out soon and we will have a great picnic."
   - 👉 She is an _____
3. Leo: "It's raining, so the picnic is ruined. Everything always goes wrong."
   - 👉 He is a _____
4. Maya: "Well, it's raining. Let's just look at the weather report and decide if we should stay inside or buy umbrellas."
   - 👉 She is a _____
5. Ben: "I love meeting new people at parties! Let's go talk to that group over there."
   - 👉 He is _____
6. Anna: "Blah blah blah! And then I went to the store, and then I saw a cat, and then..."
   - 👉 She is very _____
7. Sam: "I don't care which restaurant we go to. Fast food, Italian, anything is fine with me!"
   - 👉 He is _____
8. Mr. Davis: "Please do not smile or joke during the exam. Focus completely on your paper."
   - 👉 He is very _____

B. Complete the sentences using the best word from the box to show opposites.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Word Bank B: Punctual, Conservative, Polite, Independent, Impolite, Rude, Friendly, Trustworthy, Considerate, Unfriendly, Nice, Modest, Liberal.

1. It is important to be _____ and arrive exactly at 9:00 AM. Arriving late is considered _____.
2. Saying "please" and "thank you" is _____. Shouting at a waiter is _____.
3. The new student smiled and said hello to everyone; she is very _____. The boy who ignored us seemed _____.
4. Emma loves new ideas, modern lifestyles, and is very open to changing old rules.Emma is more _____.
5. Jessica is very _____; she always turns down her music when her roommate is sleeping.
6. You can tell David your secrets. He never tells anyone because he is _____.
7. Even though Clara is the best singer in the school, she is very _____ and says, "I just got lucky."
8. He doesn't need help from his parents to fix his car or cook his meals. He is very _____.
9. Jack loves traditional ideas. He dresses formally, doesn't like change, and prefers old ways of doing things. Jack is more _____.

C. Read the scenarios below. Choose the correct word to describe the person's outlook or behavior.

1. Clara always drives slowly, checks her mirrors, and watches for children. She is a very_____driver.
2. Marco didn't look where he was going and dropped his coffee all over his desk. That was very _____of him.
3. Even in a very difficult situation, the team stays positive. They smile and believe they can still win. They feel _____
4. The broken computer screen shows nothing but black lines. It is completely _____now; we cannot fix it.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. This smartphone app is incredibly _____for studying English. It helps me learn five new words every morning!
6. Superheroes in movies are incredibly _____they can lift cars and save entire cities by themselves.
7. Without any electricity or tools, the workers felt _____to fix the broken machine.

D. Read the story below. Fill in each blank with the correct idiom from the box. Note: You must conjugate or change the verbs (such as "start", "pull", or "be") to match the grammatical context of the sentence.

- Just a matter of time
- What are you going to do?
- Start getting to (someone)
- Roll with the punches
- A sitting duck
- Better safe than sorry
- A pain in the neck
- Pull your weight

The final marketing presentation was due in three days, and our group was a complete mix of different personality types.

First, there was Kevin. To be completely honest, he was being a real 1. _____ because he kept complaining about how hard the assignment was. To make matters worse, he wasn't doing any actual work. Maya finally lost her patience and told him, "Look, Kevin, everyone else is working hard. You need to 2. _____ and finish your slides, or we are leaving your name off the cover page!"

Then there was Lucas, our resident pessimist. The stress of the deadline had 3. _____ him; he was convinced the professor was going to fail us no matter what we did. He looked at the long rubric and sighed, "With this strict grading system, it's 4. _____ before we all lose our scholarships."

Maya, who always has a highly positive and practical outlook on life, shrugged and said, "Hey,

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. _____? We can't change the rubric, Lucas. You've just got to 6. _____ and deal with the challenge."

To ensure we wouldn't have any tech issues on presentation day, Maya insisted we back up our slides on three different flash drives and email a copy to ourselves. "I know it seems like overkill," she laughed, "but 7. _____."

We all agreed, especially since presenting without a backup plan would leave us completely vulnerable. Without those files ready, we would be 8. _____ if the classroom computer decided to crash!

LIVEWORKSHEETS