

LISTENING PRACTICE 8

You will hear Teresa talking to her friend Daniel about a school writing competition. Listen and fill in the blank with NO MORE THAN THREE words

Teresa: Hi, Daniel, have you done your writing for the (1) _____ yet?

Daniel: Hi, Teresa, I (2) _____ it yesterday.

Teresa: Wow! What did you write about?

Daniel: That movie we saw last week. What about you?

Teresa: That film was great! I couldn't (3) _____ writing about my grandma's life or writing about the island I went to on holiday. I've chosen the (4) _____ – there's so much to say!

Daniel: You can't write as many words as you want.

Teresa: It's from five hundred to (5) _____, isn't it?

Daniel: It's five hundred at the most, actually.

Teresa: And how did you feel after you finished?

Daniel: I wasn't tired, just (6) _____ people might say it's really bad, because I don't think what I've written is very exciting!

Teresa: It'll be fine.

Daniel: If you win, what will you use the (7) _____ for?

Teresa: Everything I use a laptop for, and I'll be able to read books on it.

Daniel: You have a (8) _____ winning, you're great at writing stories.

Teresa: Well, I'm better at that than just (9) _____. But I'm not sure my (10) _____ good enough.
