

MATCHING WORDS – GLOBAL PERSPECTIVES 3

How Can We Look After Our Oceans?

Match the words with the correct meaning.

Write the correct letter (A–L).

Word Options

- A. Presenter
- B. Expert
- C. Role Play
- D. Plastic Pollution
- E. Recycling
- F. Audience
- G. Running Order
- H. Ocean
- I. Scientist
- J. Single-use Plastic
- K. Wildlife
- L. Beach Clean-up

1. _____ Someone who knows a lot about a subject.
2. _____ A person who asks questions in a TV show.
3. _____ Pretending to be a character and acting like them.
4. _____ Harm caused by too much plastic in nature or water.
5. _____ Turning used materials into something useful again.
6. _____ People who watch a presentation or show.
7. _____ The order of events in a presentation or performance.
8. _____ A very large area of salt water.
9. _____ A person who studies nature and living things.
10. _____ Plastic used once and then thrown away.
11. _____ Animals living in nature, such as dolphins and whales.
12. _____ An activity where people work together to clean rubbish near the sea.

ESSAY QUESTIONS – GLOBAL PERSPECTIVES 3

How Can We Look After Our Oceans?

1. Why do you think plastic pollution is dangerous for oceans and sea animals? Explain your answer.

2. What can people do to reduce plastic pollution in the oceans? Give at least three examples.

3. Why is it important for people to work together during a role play activity?

Imagine you are a TV presenter in a role play about ocean pollution. What questions would you ask an expert? Write at least three questions.

4. Why is it important to speak clearly and confidently when presenting to an audience?

5. What should a good audience do while watching a role play or presentation? Explain why.

6. If you were creating a TV show about plastic pollution, what characters would you include and why?

7. What is one new thing you learned about plastic pollution in this project? How did it change your thinking?

8. Explain how using less single-use plastic can help protect oceans.

9. Imagine you joined a beach clean-up day. Describe what you would do and how it would help the environment.
