

Reading – A Classroom Makeover

Next weekend, P4 students will work together to renew their classroom. They will paint new pictures on the walls, and their teachers, Miss Chan, will clean the whiteboard to make it neat. Mr. Lee will remove the old posters and water all the plants. Leo and Sara will help by picking up trash and wiping the windows.

The class is excited for the classroom to look fresh and beautiful. They believe they will finish their work in two days and the classroom will be a lovely place to learn and play.
