

ENGLISH WORKSHEET: EMOTIONS & FEELINGS

Student: _____ Grade: 1st Secondary

Date: _____ Teacher: _____

1. Vocabulary Match (Drag & Drop Activity simulation)

Escribe la palabra correcta del "menú" en el espacio correspondiente según la situación de cada personaje.

Angry

Scared

Excited

Sad

Tired

- a) Lily has a big English exam tomorrow and she didn't study. She feels
- b) It is Tom's birthday today and he is getting a new bicycle! He is very
- c) Mark worked for 10 hours today and walked home. Right now, he is
- d) Someone broke Sarah's favorite toy. She is very with her brother.
- e) Lucas lost his puppy in the park this morning. He feels very

2. Matching Definitions (Unir las columnas)

Relaciona cada sentimiento con su causa correspondiente. Escribe la letra correcta dentro del paréntesis ().
Todo el ejercicio se encuentra encerrado en el siguiente recuadro.

Feelings / Sentimientos	Situations / Situaciones
(A) Surprised	() 1. When you need water and want to drink something.
(B) Thirsty	() 2. When you receive an unexpected gift or an amazing news.
(C) Bored	() 3. When you feel comfortable, content, and everything is going great.
(D) Happy	() 4. When you want to eat food because your stomach is empty.
(E) Hungry

() 5. When there is nothing interesting to do and time goes slowly.

3. Short Answer Questions (Respuesta corta y libre)

Responde las siguientes preguntas en inglés de forma libre y con tus propias palabras. ¡Sé creativo!

Question 1: What makes you feel very happy during the weekend? Why?

Question 2: Imagine you see a giant spider in your bedroom. How do you feel and what do you do?

Question 3: When you feel sad or stressed, what activity helps you feel better?
