

GRAMMAR

object pronouns

2A Complete the table.

subject pronoun	object pronoun
1	me
you	2
he	3
4	it
she	5
6	us
they	7

B  The sentences below have a mistake. Choose the best option to correct the mistake.

- I don't like my manager. She never listens to I.
a my b me c she
- I don't eat eggs because I don't like him.
a them b it c her
- Our colleague James always helps we with our problems.
a they b them c us
- My new coffee machine is great. I love her!
a it b him c them

C Complete the text with object pronouns.

I'm a digital designer. My job is difficult, but I love
1, My colleagues are friendly – I really like 2, Mo is my favourite colleague. He always helps 3 with my problems and I often have lunch with 4, Our manager's name is Paola.
She's a great manager and we like 5, She never forgets our birthdays and on Fridays she always gets coffee and cakes for 6!

READING

4A Read the blog and choose the best title (a–c).

- a My Best Friend, Jay
- b A Good Colleague
- c A Good Friend but a Bad Colleague

I have a new job. It's in an office with twelve people and one of my colleagues is my friend, Jay!

Jay is an old friend from school. He's great! We usually play tennis together on Thursday evenings and we often have lunch or dinner together at the weekend with our families. We always have a good time. He never forgets my birthday, and sometimes he gets me a birthday cake! Jay is a very good listener and always helps me with my problems. He's a really good friend.

But at work, Jay is different! He always says 'hello' or 'good morning' but he sometimes forgets people's names! I have lunch in the café with my other colleagues, but Jay usually has lunch at his desk. He often gets me a coffee in the afternoon, but he doesn't talk very much and he doesn't always listen to my ideas. And he always uses my pens and sticky notes, but he never asks me!

I think Jay is a great friend, but I don't think he's a great colleague – it's very strange!

B Read the blog again. Complete the table with the phrases in the box.

listens to me doesn't listen to my ideas
forgets important information has lunch with me helps me with my problems uses my things

my friend Jay	my colleague Jay

