Task 2: Read the postcard and answer the questions (10 points)

Dear Eve,

Yesterday we went to the fantastic Chocolate Museum. You must go there!

A guide told us all about the history of chocolate and we watched a short film about how to make chocolate. Dad thought the film was great. They had a brilliant collection of old chocolate wrappers too – Grandma really liked that.

They also gave us some free chocolate to take home. It was delicious!

I hope you are well.

Love

The Strange Tale of Jim Garry's Mountain

It was the Mayor who saw it first. 'Another beautiful morning,' he said to himself as he opened his curtains. 'Wait a moment. Jim Garry's Mountain is ...'

It was all the villagers could talk about. 'How can we climb it now?' they asked. Everyone was very worried, so they met in the Town Hall that evening to discuss the problem. 'Thank you all for coming,' said the Mayor, 'Now as you know, Jim Garry's mountain is ...'

'It's not just Jim Garry's Mountain,' said a voice.

An old man near the door stood up. His long hair and beard were grey.

'Excuse me,' said the Mayor, 'this meeting is for the people of the village only.'

'Don't you want to know what's happening? Why there is no water in the river and no grass in the fields?'

'What are you talking about? We are here to talk about where our mountain went.'

'Everything is going because you don't look after it.'

'You must care for the world around you, Mayor. That is all I want to say. Good evening to you.'

The villagers were more interested in who the man was than what he had to say. Nobody noticed that the forests, fields, lakes and islands were not there anymore. The only thing left in the village was the Town Hall and the people in it.
