Keith and Jennifer Lee live in Oregon, in the USA. Every year they go to the mountains. They don't usually have any problems, but last year things were different. They drove up to the mountains as usual, but as they were driving home, they suddenly got stuck in the snow.

Unfortunately, their phones weren't working so high up. It was a worrying situation. While they were trying to move the car, they thought about their four children, aged 8 to 18. A friend, Sophie Smith, was taking care of the children. When the Lees didn't return, Sophie became worried. She called the police and a search began. Two days later Keith finally managed to move the car. They were driving home when they heard about the search for them on the radio. They were surprised. They called the police and then called Sophie. "They're safe. They're coming home!" Sophie shouted when she heard the news. Everyone was delighted. Keith is planning to go back to the mountains again next year, but Jennifer doesn't want to go. It was a frightening experience for her – she thinks they should stay in town.
