

Skimming

Title, Pics & P# 1

1- The text mostly about:

- a) Food
- b) School
- c) Medicine and Health

2- Doctors use _____ to learn about future diseases?

- a) Food
- b) Your hand
- c) Your blood

P# 6

3- What might we be able to peek into soon?

- a) Our food future
- b) Our school future
- c) Our medical future

Scanning

A) Look for names of tests

4. What is the test for newborn babies called?
_____ screening

5. What is the test for adults called?
_____ gene testing

B) Look for names of diseases

6. Find one disease mentioned in the text:

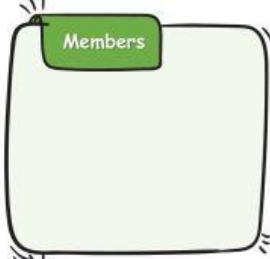

C) Look for names of people

7. Find the last name of the woman who had a test for colon cancer: _____

D) Look for good and bad things about testing

8. Find one GOOD feeling a negative test gives:

9. Find one BAD thing that can happen after a positive test:
_____ about something that might not happen

By: Essa Al Hussaini

Paragraph # 1

1- What can a drop of your blood tell you about the future?

2- What does genetic testing look at in your body?

Paragraph # 2

3- Why do doctors screen newborn babies?

4- When do babies usually get screened?

Paragraph # 3

5- What does predictive gene testing tell adults?

6- Who usually gets predictive gene testing?

Paragraph # 4

7- How do people feel when a test is negative?

8- How can a positive test help people?

Paragraph # 5

9- Is testing helpful for diseases that have no treatment?

10- If a test is positive, will the person always get the disease?

Paragraph # 6

11- How do people feel about the future of genetic testing?

Write paragraph numbers to topics

- _____ Predictive Gene Testing
- _____ Bad Things About Testing
- _____ Newborn Screening
- _____ The Future
- _____ What is Genetic Testing?
- _____ Good Things About Testing