Shopping

A. Which of these expressions is not a natural collocation?

- He's a regular / good / loyal / usual customer.
- 2. Let's go shopping / for a shop/round the shops/ on a shopping spree.
- It's a shopping / department / chain / convenience store.
- It's a shopping trolley / keeper / bag / precinct.

B. Which is the most natural-sounding answer?

- 5. A: Do you go / do shopping often?B: Not really. I prefer shopping / ordering stuff online.
- It's a bit exhausting going round / into the January sales seeking / hunting for bargains.
- 7. I haven't done / made my Christmas shopping yet and there's only fifteen more days for shopping / shopping days till Christmas!
- 8. If you're going out, could you pick up / bring some things from the shop for me, please?
- I'm afraid this model is out of stock / not in the shop at the moment, but I could demand / order it for you.
- 10. I prefer to go to the supermarket on Monday mornings because I hate being in a line / standing in a queue to pay for my groceries.

- 11. Refunds can only be given within 30 days of purchase / buying upon presentation of a valid receipt. Goods may be exchanged / changed after this date at the company's discretion.
- 12. There were quite a few market stall holders / sellers at the monthly farm sale/ farmer's market.
- 13. Local traders / sellers are complaining about the large out-of-town retail outlets / shops which have opened in the last few years.
- 14. I don't like shopping in that town any more. It's all chain shops / stores and shop / shopping precincts - all the nice little independent / private shops have gone.
- 15. Customers with five items / things or fewer can use the rapid / express checkouts.

C. Match the two parts of the sentences.

20.

16. I think you should splash out... a. wholesale. 17. Go on! Treat yourself... b. a bargain c. of drinks. 18. She snapped up... They were very cheap. I bought them... d. to a new dress. 19. Let me buy the next round... e. on a nice weekend.

