The Very Hungry Caterpillar

READING COMPREHENSION ACTIVITY

The Very Hungry Caterpillar is a famous children's story by Eric Carle. The story begins with a tiny egg on a leaf. One Sunday morning, a caterpillar comes out of the egg and feels very hungry. Every day, he eats different foods. On Monday, he eats one apple. As the week goes on, he eats more and more food. After eating too much, he gets a stomachache. Then he eats a green leaf and feels better. Finally, he makes a cocoon and becomes a beautiful butterfly.

A. Read the text and decide whether the sentences are true or false.

1.	The caterpillar comes out of a cocoon at the beginning of the story.	True	False
2.	The caterpillar is very hungry when he hatches from the egg.	True	False
3.	On Monday, he eats one apple.	True	False
4.	The caterpillar eats less food each day.	True	False
5.	He gets a stomachache after eating too much food.	True	False
6.	The caterpillar feels better after eating a green leaf.	True	False
7.	The story starts with a butterfly on a flower.	True	False
8.	The caterpillar never changes into another animal.	True	False
9.	The caterpillar makes a cocoon before becoming a butterfly.	True	False
10.	The caterpillar comes out of the egg on Sunday morning.	True	False

LIVEWORKSHEETS