

3 GRAMMAR: Indirect questions

A  Look at the clues. Circle the correct rule.

1. In indirect questions, use question word order / statement word order.
2. Use what / if for an indirect yes/no question.
3. For indirect questions within statements, use a period / question mark.

Clue Box: Indirect Questions

Can you tell me where he was born?
Do you know if he likes broccoli?
I'd like to know what sports he likes.

B Turn these into indirect questions. Check your answers later.

- 1 Where were you born?
→ Can you tell me
- 2 When does your teacher want to go on holiday? → Do you know
- 3 Are your friends into reading?
→ I wonder
- 4 When do your parents have their party?
→ Do you have any idea
- 5 Were you born in this country?
→ I'd like to find out

 ACCURACY CHECK

RULE TO REMEMBER!

In yes/no indirect questions, DON'T use do or does in the second part.

Oops!

Do you know where does she live? ❌

Perfect!

Do you know where she lives? ✅