

Name: _____

Class: _____

1. Read each short situation carefully. Choose the best answer (A, B, or C) for how the person feels.

1. Tom studied for 3 hours. When he got his test result, he saw 10/10 and started jumping and smiling.

How does Tom feel?

- A. Disappointed
- B. On cloud nine
- C. frustrated

2. Lisa told a funny story in class, but everyone laughed at the wrong moment and she went red.

How does Lisa feel?

- A. embarrassed
- B. jealous
- C. relieved

3. Jack worked hard on his project, but his group forgot to submit it.

How does Jack feel?

- A. on cloud nine
- B. frustrated
- C. relieved

4. Anna was worried about her exam, but she passed it easily.

How does Anna feel now?

- A. relieved
- B. disappointed
- C. jealous

5. Mia sees her best friend getting a new phone while she still has an old one.

How does Mia feel?

- A. jealous
- B. upset
- C. on cloud nine

6. David planned a picnic, but it started raining heavily.

How does David feel?

- A. on cloud nine
- B. disappointed
- C. relieved

2. Rewrite each sentence using a suitable modal verb from the list: must / mustn't / have to / don't have to / needn't / should / shouldn't / ought to / can / may / might

1. It is necessary to wear a seatbelt in a car.

→ _____

2. It is not necessary to bring your own book.

→ _____

3. It is possible that he is in the library.

→ _____

4. It is a good idea to eat more vegetables.

→ _____

5. It is not allowed to talk during the exam.

→ _____

6. You are advised to study a little every day.

→ _____

3. Look at the pictures. Write complete sentences using: so... that or such... that.

4. Imagine you are 20 years old and very successful and happy. Write a letter from your current self to your future self, asking about your life and sharing what makes you happy right now.

- what makes you happy right now
- some questions about your future life
- your hopes and dreams for the future
- how you think your life will change when you are 20

