

Worksheet 1: Wild Animals Reading Comprehension

Level: A2 Pre-Intermediate | Age: 10–12 years old

Digital Instructions: Read through the animal fact sheet shared on your screen. Double-click on your assigned color box on the FigJam board and type your answers to the questions below.

1. At what maximum distance can a person hear the sound of a lion?

Answer: _____

2. Decide if this is True or False: A lion sleeps or rests for roughly 12 hours daily.

Answer: _____

3. What is the purpose of the thick mane growing on a male lion?

- A) Keeping warm during cold seasons
- B) Defending their necks during a battle
- C) Improving their speed in water

Answer: _____

4. Decide if this is True or False: Every single tiger possesses a completely distinct look to their markings.

Answer: _____

5. What causes an elephant to wave its giant ears around when temperatures rise?

Answer: _____

6. Identify two distinct actions an elephant performs using its trunk.

Answer: _____

7. Which of these activities is avoided by a bear during its winter deep-sleep cycles?

- A) Resting for multiple months
- B) Keeping their internal energy saved
- C) Consuming meals, drinking water, or using the restroom

Answer: _____

Worksheet 1: Wild Animals Reading Comprehension (Answer Key)

Teacher's Guide: Use this key to check your students' responses live on the FigJam workspace or during final class feedback.

- Question 1: At what maximum distance can a person hear the sound of a lion?
 - Correct Answer: Up to 5 miles away.
- Question 2: Decide if this is True or False: A lion sleeps or rests for roughly 12 hours daily.
 - Correct Answer: False (The infographic states they spend a whopping 20 hours resting or sleeping).
- Question 3: What is the purpose of the thick mane growing on a male lion?
 - Correct Answer: B) Defending their necks during a battle.
- Question 4: Decide if this is True or False: Every single tiger possesses a completely distinct look to their markings.
 - Correct Answer: True.
- Question 5: What causes an elephant to wave its giant ears around when temperatures rise?
 - Correct Answer: To lower their body heat / cooling themselves down like personal fans.
- Question 6: Identify two distinct actions an elephant performs using its trunk.
 - Correct Answer: Any two choices from: grabbing small peanuts, drinking water, or giving themselves a quick shower.
- Question 7: Which of these activities is avoided by a bear during its winter deep-sleep cycles?
 - Correct Answer: C) Consuming meals, drinking water, or using the restroom.