Present simple: verb to be

Exercise 1. Complete the sentences.

A: Where are we now, Sarah?

B: You ..... just in front of our new house.

A: Are you hungry?

B: Yes, I ..... a little bit hungry, I must admit.

A: Is your younger sister at school?

B: No, she ..... at school this week.

A: Where are your parents?

B: My mum and dad ..... at work as usual.

A: Is Peter your best friend? And what about Bill?

B: I can say that Peter and Bill ..... my best friends.

A: I think these stories about footballers are very interesting.

B: Really? The stories about footballers ..... interesting at all.

A: How often are you ill, grandma?

B: Quite often. I ..... very healthy this year.

A: Are Susan and Marion good at sports activities?

B: Well, Susan ..... quite good at athletics, but Marion isn't very good at sports.

A: Am I the best student in our class?

B: No, you ..... . I'm the best. Do you agree?

A: Where are you, Simon?

B: I'm afraid Simon ..... here. He is at the shop in the centre of town.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Exercise 2. Complete the questions in the following dialogues. _____

A: Excuse me, ... our new neighbour?

B: No, I'm not. I'm your husband's colleague.

A: Where ..... Mark and Kevin? They're so late today.

B: I have no idea, to tell the truth.

A: Mum, what time ..... ? I'm so hungry.

B: Dinner is at seven o'clock as usual.

A: Kevin, where ..... now? Do you know?

B: I'm not sure. I think we're somewhere near San Francisco.

A: Mrs. Jones, where are your children? ..... at home?

B: My children? Why do you want to know?

A: I can't find the ball. Where ..... ?

B: Behind the garden wall, I'm afraid.

A: Doctor, I don't feel very well. ..... ill?

B: We'll see. I must take your temperature first.

A: ..... good at English?

B: Eve's the best student in her class.

A: I can see three wolves in the park. ..... crazy?

B: Yes, you are. I can only see three shepherd dogs.

LIVEWORKSHEETS