Who is the real occupier?

Context: Matias and Anne married recently. They decided to buy a house, and when they went to visit the house, they found an unconventional occupier.

Matias: Anne!

Anne: What happened, Matias?

Matias: I think the _____ of this house is already taken by that wild squirrel who is on the balcony.

Anne: Are you tired, honey? The previous Ecuador match drove you crazy.

Matias: I did not lose my mind, cupcake. I have tried to _____ the squirrel, but I failed to do that.

Anne: I think the squirrel is the real _____ of that balcony, and he believes it is his home!

Matias: You might be right, but _____ speaking, our daily home life is much more fun with him around.

Anne: I suppose that is true, as long as he does not ask to sleep in our bed!

Matias: Do not worry, we will make sure he stays outside.
