Name: _____

Reading 1 – Shopping for a Birthday Party

Maria wants to buy new clothes for her brother's birthday party this weekend. On Saturday morning, she goes to a shopping mall with her best friend, Anna. They visit many clothing stores and compare different items before buying anything. Maria wants something comfortable, stylish, and affordable because she doesn't want to spend too much money.

First, they look at jackets. Maria likes the black leather jacket, but Anna prefers the blue denim one. Anna says the blue jacket is lighter and more comfortable than the black one. Maria agrees, but she thinks the black jacket looks better. After comparing the prices, they discover that the blue jacket is cheaper, so Maria decides to buy it.

Before they leave the mall, they also buy a pair of sneakers. Maria asks the salesperson, "How much are these white sneakers?" The salesperson answers, "They are $49." Maria thinks they are reasonable, so she buys them. She is very happy because now she has a complete outfit for the birthday party.

Reading 2 – A Weekend Invitation

Kevin loves music and movies. Every Friday evening, he watches a movie with his friends or listens to his favorite rock songs. His sister Emma enjoys pop music and game shows, but she doesn't like horror movies because she thinks they are too scary. Kevin often asks her to watch action movies, but she usually says no.

This weekend Kevin would like to invite his friends to an outdoor concert. He sends them a message: "Would you like to come to the concert with me on Saturday?" His friend Lucas replies, "I'd love to, but I have to visit my grandparents." Emma says, "I'd like to go because I love live music."

On Saturday afternoon, Kevin and Emma take the bus to the concert. They meet their friends there and spend the whole evening listening to different bands. After the concert, they talk about their favorite songs. Kevin says he likes rock better than pop, while Emma prefers pop because she enjoys dancing. They both have a wonderful time together.

Speaking 1

Use clothing vocabulary, prices, comparative adjectives, and preferences from Unit 3.

Instructions:

1. Go to https://vocaroo.com.
2. Record an audio of 1–2 minutes.
3. Imagine you are shopping for clothes with a friend.
4. In your recording, include:
    - Describe at least three clothing items.
    - Compare two items using comparative adjectives (cheaper, nicer, more comfortable, better, etc.).
    - Say which item you prefer and explain why.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

- Mention the price of at least two items.

5. Upload the Vocaroo link to the SGA before the deadline.

Example:

Hello! Today I'm shopping for new clothes because my cousin's birthday is next weekend. First, I see two jackets. The black leather jacket is very nice, but I prefer the blue denim one because it is more comfortable and cheaper. The black jacket costs $75, and the blue one costs $55.
Next, I look at two pairs of sneakers. The white sneakers are more stylish than the black ones, so I like the white ones better. They cost $49, and I think that's a reasonable price.
Finally, I buy the blue jacket and the white sneakers. I really like my new outfit because it is comfortable, fashionable, and affordable. Thank you!

Speaking 2

Use entertainment vocabulary, the simple present, would like, and invitations from Unit 4.

Instructions:

1. Go to https://vocaroo.com.
2. Record an audio of 1–2 minutes.
3. Imagine you are talking to a friend about entertainment and your weekend plans.
4. In your recording, include:
   - Talk about your favorite music, movie, or TV show.
   - Explain what you like and dislike.
   - Invite a friend to do an activity using "Would you like to...?"
   - Accept or decline the invitation politely and explain why.

Example:

Hello! My favorite kind of entertainment is music. I really like pop and rock music because they make me feel happy. I also enjoy watching action movies, but I don't like horror movies because they are too scary.

On weekends, I usually watch movies with my family or listen to music. Sometimes we go to the cinema together.

This Saturday, I would like to invite my best friend to see a new action movie. I would say, "Would you like to go to the movies with me on Saturday?"

My friend might answer, "I'd love to! What time does the movie start?"

Then I would say, "It starts at 7:00 p.m. Let's meet at the shopping mall."

I think we will have a great time together. Thank you!
