

Object Pronoun

Fill in the Blanks (Dialogue at the Café)

Complete the conversation between two friends at the café using the correct object pronoun from the box.

Me | It | Them | Us

Tom: Wow, look at those delicious cakes in the shop window! I want to buy _____ (1).

Mia: The waiter is coming to our table. Let's ask _____ (2) for the menu.

Tom: Excuse _____ (3), sir! Can you bring _____ (4) two coffees and a chocolate cake?

Waiter: Sure! I will bring the food to your table in five minutes.

Rewrite the sentences. Replace the underlined places or people with the correct object pronoun.

The school bus is arriving. The students are waiting for the bus. -> The students are waiting for _____.

Look at the teacher near the school. Can you see the teacher (female)? -> Can you see _____.

The children are playing in the playground. I can see the children from the bus stop. -> I can see _____ from the bus stop.

My brother is at the bank. I need to call my brother now. -> I need to call _____ now.

The city has a big supermarket. People buy food at the supermarket. -> People buy food at _____.

Read the sentences about the city image. One pronoun in each sentence is wrong. Find the mistake and correct it.

Look at the hospital on the right. An ambulance is parked in front of him.

Correction:

There are many cars on the street. The traffic lights help her move safely.

Correction:

The museum is a beautiful old building. Visitors love to explore us.

Correction:

Write a sentences using each object pronoun.

Me _____ It _____

You _____ Us _____

Him _____ Them _____

Her _____