Do Life Hacks Work?

Search for 'life hack' online and you can find thousands of articles with ideas for 'making your life easier and more relaxed'. ¹ ____ For example, I've used an app to do bed yoga every morning before I wake up. I've put my clothes away in the cupboard in a different way so I had more space, and I've used a glass to make the music coming out of my phone sound really loud. But do these life hacks actually work?

² ____ I always want to try it. For example, when I heard about ten-minute bed yoga, I thought 'What a fantastic idea!'. The exercise can help you to feel more awake. It doesn't take long and then you jump out of bed ready for the day to start.

³ ____ Yes and no. My body felt better, even after just five minutes, but the whole thing made me feel quite stressed by the end. I really needed the bathroom and my cat kept telling me it was time for breakfast. It wasn't comfortable yoga.

⁴ ____ I spent hours trying to put my clothes away in the right way when I could have spent that time with my friends. I also spent a whole hour trying to understand one life hack video for putting clothes away, but I still couldn't do it and it made me angry. Life hacks should be easy to do, not difficult.

⁵ ____ That's why we need to check what other people say about them before we try them and choose the hacks we try carefully. We should forget the ones that don't work. For example, my mobile phone in a glass just made my music sound terrible. What a waste of time!
