Melanie's Busy Day

My name is Melanie. I live in a nice house near the beach. Today, I want to meet my friend. He is tall and very fun to be with. He is married to a lovely woman.

We decide to go downtown to a new restaurant. It is quite far, so we drive. The traffic is very slow, not fast.

When we arrive, a polite manager gives us a table. The cook at this restaurant is famous. The food is not cheap; it is very expensive. But it is delicious!

After lunch, we look at a book about learning a new language. The introduction is very short and easy to read. It is not difficult at all!

It was a beautiful and happy day.

Question 1

How do Melanie and her friend get downtown because the traffic is slow?

- A) They walk
- B) They drive a car
- C) They ride a bicycle

Question 2

Who gives them a table when they arrive at the restaurant?

- A) The manager
- B) The cook
- C) A tall friend

Question 3

What is the book about?

- A) Beautiful beaches
- B) Learning a new language
- C) Cooking delicious food

Question 4

What is Melanie's friend like?

- A) He is short and angry
- B) He is tall and fun
- C) He is slow and expensive

Question 5

How does Melanie describe the introduction of the book?

- A) It is long and difficult
- B) It is short and easy
- C) It is nice and fast

LIVEWORKSHEETS