Montfort Educational Centre - Vocabulary - JCE

Jasmine: My favourite outfit is a knee-length sleeveless silk dress. It's got a V-neck and two pockets. It's light blue and I have a necklace and some earrings to match. I wear it with some silver sandals with really high heels. I'm not very tall, so I don't wear flat shoes. I can only really wear this dress to a party or somewhere special, but I love the colour and the material, and it makes me feel good.

Kariem: My favourite trousers are dark brown and they've got straight legs. I don't like clothes which are baggy and I hardly ever wear jeans. I like wearing my short-sleeved cotton shirt, which has got a collar with buttons. It's very bright and cheerful. I prefer wearing a shirt to a T-shirt, but I never wear a tie. When I go out, I usually wear my leather jacket — it's old now, but it's very comfortable.

4. Here is what the other two people in the pictures wrote. Match what each of them says to one of the pictures and fill in the gaps with a word from the box.

EXAM PRACTICE

READING Part 2

You are going to read an article about a woman who shops for clothes for film stars. Five sentences have been removed from the article. Choose from sentences A—F the one which fits each gap (1—5). There is one extra sentence which you do not need to use.

Shopping for a Living

Helping Hollywood stars look their best

Wouldn't it be cool if you could shop for a living? (1) _____ I'm talking about the latest fashions in the best shops. For Hollywood wardrobe stylists, this kind of shopping largely defines the job.

"Obviously, it's fun to get paid to spend money," says Jami, "and to get to feel like one of the rich and famous. But I also like to help make people look good. (2) _____ That's because every job is different, from game shows to commercials to movies."

Jami had no idea this even existed until some actresses she knew kept telling her she'd be good at it. (3) _____ "I basically carried around her shopping bags for free and learned the business, including stuff like who has the best evening wear and which tailor can do overnight alterations."

(4) _____ "It's hard not to let your own tastes interfere, but ultimately you're not the final decision maker," says Jami, who thinks for a minute and then says, "My all-time favourite actor was a monkey, because he didn't talk back and he didn't drop his clothes on the floor."

It's no wonder these stylists are often credited with setting fashion trends around the globe. A stylist might give an actress a beautiful bag or an amazing scarf to wear to a premiere. (5) _____. The next thing she knows, she's got her own line of accessories and a boutique on Sunset Plaza.

So the next time someone compliments your sense of style, you could think of becoming a wardrobe stylist — it could be your introduction to the stars.

- A Once it's splashed across the pages of every magazine across the country it becomes a trend.
- B. And I don't mean for groceries or socks.
- C. A stylist, of course, often has to deal with strong personalities as well as big budgets.
- D. But that's one of the few disadvantages of the job.
- E. She already had a distinctive personal style, so she apprenticed with a well-known stylist.
- F. And one of the best things is that it's never monotonous.

Exam tip
