

You have already read an incomplete story of "The Twelve Dancing Princesses." Now, please answer the questions below!

PART A: Choose The Best Ending

Choose the ending you think fits the story best. There is no right or wrong answer. What matters is that you can explain your choice using clues from the story.

- A. The soldier told the king everything and showed the golden leaf as proof.
- B. The soldier told the king only part of the secret because he wanted to protect the princesses.
- C. The soldier asked the princesses to explain the secret before he spoke to the king.
- D. The soldier decided to keep the secret and left the palace without asking for a reward.
- E. The soldier asked the king to let the princesses tell the truth themselves.
- F. Others

PART B: Explain Your Choice

Why did you choose that ending?

↳