

- I. Complete the Interview with the best answers below (A-H). You don't need all of them.

HOW DO YOU GET TO SCHOOL?

What's your journey to school like? Do you enjoy listening to your iPod on the bus? Maybe you walk with your friends or perhaps your parents drive you on their way to work? Teen Magazine talked to Laura Duncan, a teenager from Scotland with a very unusual journey to school!

Interviewer: Hi, Laura. Is it true that you travel by bike, boat and bus every day to get to your school?

Laura: 1) ____ F ____

Interviewer: Is your school very far away, then?

Laura: 2) _____. However, the journey isn't easy because my school's on a different island.

Interviewer: So tell us about your journey to school.

Laura: 3) _____. At the harbour, I catch a ferry to the other island. Then I take a bus to school.

Interviewer: Do you enjoy the journey?

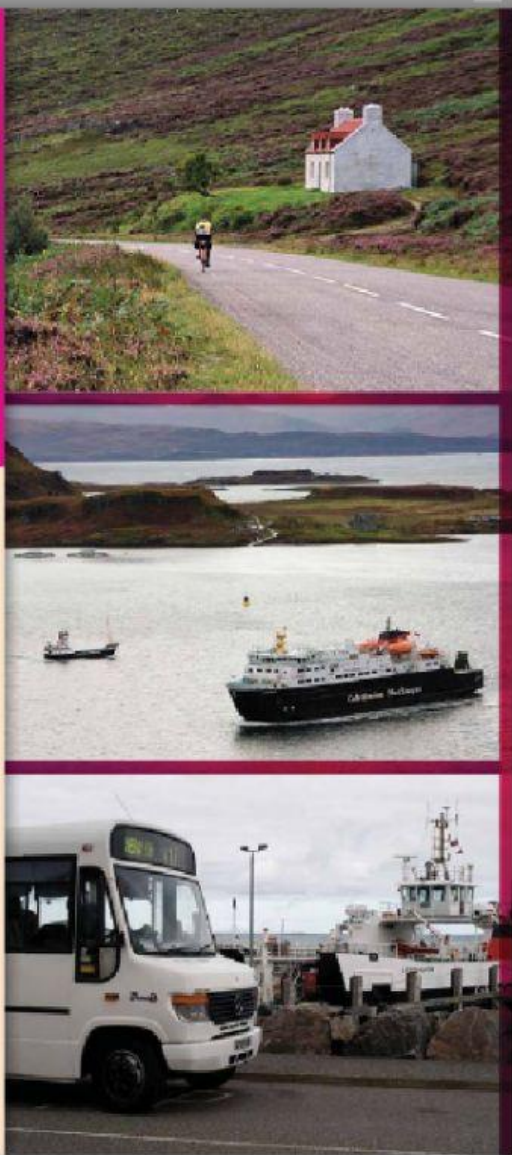

Laura: 4) _____. But in September, I'm going to start a new school on a bigger island. It's further from home so I'll probably stay at school all week and come home at the weekends.

Interviewer: What will you miss about your daily journey to school?

Laura: 5) _____. I love travelling on the sea and I will miss talking to the other ferry passengers. But sometimes the ferry was late because of bad weather – I won't miss all those delays!

Interviewer: How will you get to your new school?

Laura: 6) _____. It's only a short flight. I can't wait!
