There Is or There Are

Is - refers to only one thing - singular.
Are - refers to more than one thing - plural.

Directions: Fill in the blanks with is or are for each sentence.

1. There _____ a fly in my soup!
2. There _____ one cloud in the sky.
3. There _____ a strange sound coming from the other room.
4. There _____ six eggs left in the carton.
5. There _____ no place like home.
6. There _____ a surprise party planned for him.
7. There _____ too many toys in the toy box.
8. There _____ mice living in the attic.
9. There _____ letters in the mailbox.
10. There _____ a cat wandering in our yard.

twinkl
visit twinkl.com
twinkl Quality Standard Approved
LIVEWORKSHEETS