(~ MOVERS PART 5)

A Busy Weekend

Ben has a very busy weekend. On Saturday morning, he helps his mother carry the shopping home from the supermarket. In the afternoon, he uses his laptop to do his homework and sends messages to his friends.

On Sunday, Ben goes to the park with his family. His father plays football with him while his mother reads a book. Ben's little sister rides her bike near the lake.

After lunch, they visit a café. Ben orders a sandwich and some juice. He likes the café because the waiter is friendly and the food is good.

Ben thinks weekends are exciting because he can spend time with his family and friends.
