Reading Comprehension

Fun Under the Sun

It is 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and the beach is full of energy! The sand is hot, and the waves are perfect.

Look at the water!

My cousin, Toby, is surfing on a big wave. Near the shore, my uncle is swimming in the sea, and a beautiful fish is jumping next to him. Far away, a captain is driving a ship across the ocean.

On the beach, my sister, Lily, and I are making a big sandcastle. Lily is scooping sand with a red shovel, and I am filling a green bucket with water. Suddenly, Lily screams because a big pink jellyfish is near our feet! Up in the air, a loud seagull is flying in circles, trying to catch someone's lunch.

Other people are enjoying their afternoon too. Some teenagers are running on the beach and playing football. A little boy is flying a kite that looks like a dragon, and his sister is throwing a ball to her friends.

Under the big umbrella, my grandparents are relaxing. My grandmother is drinking juice, and my grandfather is listening to music while reading a book. Now, we are all running to the cafeteria because we are eating ice cream. We love this beach!

Choose the correct option (a, b, or c).
