Possessive Pronouns
Friendship Vocabulary

Fill in the blanks with: my, your, her, his, its, our, or their.

1. I have got a new friend from Spain. _____ friend is very funny.
2. Tom has got a best friend called Ben. _____ best friend likes football.
3. Emma has got a classmate named Sara. _____ classmate is very kind.
4. We have got many good friends at school. _____ friends play volleyball with us.
5. You have got a new neighbor. Is _____ neighbor friendly?
6. My parents have got new friends. _____ friends live in London.
7. The dog has got a friend at the park. _____ friend is another dog.
8. Anna has got a pen pal in Italy. _____ pen pal writes every month.
9. I have got two classmates. _____ classmates help me with homework.
10. You have got a best friend. What is _____ best friend's name?
11. Jack has got a cousin who is also his friend. _____ cousin is twelve years old.
12. We have got a new teammate. _____ teammate is very fast.
13. The children have got many friends. _____ friends are in the same class.
14. Lucy has got a good friend called Mia. _____ friend loves music.
15. You have got a new schoolbag. Is _____ schoolbag blue?
16. I have got an online friend. _____ online friend lives in Brazil.
17. The cat has got a small toy. _____ toy is under the chair.
18. David and Alex have got a football team. _____ team wins many matches.
19. We have got a friendship club at school. _____ club meets every Friday.
20. Peter has got a birthday party today. _____ friends are coming to the party.

LIVEWORKSHEETS