Book Review: Sherlock Holmes

I recently read a mystery story about Sherlock Holmes.

The (1) _____ of the story is mystery because the story focuses on solving a crime.

The main (2) _____ is Sherlock Holmes, a brilliant detective who uses logic and observation to solve difficult cases.

The (3) _____ is Victorian London, where most of the events take place.

The (4) _____ begins when Holmes is asked to investigate a strange crime.

The main (5) _____ is discovering who committed the crime before the criminal escapes.

The (6) _____ between Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson helps readers understand their friendship and how they work together.

One important (7) _____ in the story is the magnifying glass, which represents careful observation and investigation.

The (8) _____ of the story is that intelligence, careful thinking, and paying attention to details can solve even the most difficult problems.

Here is a short (9) _____:

Sherlock Holmes investigates a mysterious crime, follows clues, interviews suspects, and uses his intelligence to discover the truth. In the end, the criminal is caught because Holmes notices details that everyone else misses.

My favorite (10) _____ is Sherlock Holmes because he is intelligent, calm, and never gives up when solving a mystery.
