

Asia. The Taj Mahal, India

The Taj Mahal is in Agra, India. It is a very famous building and a symbol of love. A king named Shah Jahan built it for his wife many years ago. The building is made of white marble and it looks beautiful in the sunlight. Many people from all over the world travel to India to see it. When you visit, you can walk in the big gardens and take photos of the monument. It is best to go early in the morning because it is very peaceful. The Taj Mahal is a masterpiece of art and architecture. It is an important place to visit if you want to learn about Indian history. It is truly a special place to see.

Africa. The Pyramids of Giza, Egypt

The Pyramids of Giza are in Egypt, near the city of Cairo. They are very old and famous structures from ancient times. There are three main pyramids, and they were built as tombs for the Egyptian kings. It is amazing to see how big they are! Many tourists visit the pyramids every year to learn about ancient history. You can ride a camel near the desert or walk around the site to see the Sphinx. The weather is usually very hot and sunny there. It is a very popular place for people who love history and adventure. Visiting the Pyramids is an unforgettable experience for everyone. It is a wonderful way to discover the mysteries of the past in Africa.

Oceania. The Sydney Opera House, Australia

The Sydney Opera House is a famous landmark in Sydney, Australia. It is near the water in the Sydney Harbour. The building has a very unique shape, like big white sails on a boat. It is one of the most recognizable buildings in the world. Many people go there to listen to music, watch plays, or see dance performances. You can also take a guided tour to learn about its architecture. Outside, the view of the ocean and the bridge is spectacular. It is a great place to walk, take photos, and enjoy the city atmosphere. If you visit Australia, this place is a must-see. It is a modern symbol of beauty and art in the heart of the city.

North America. The Statue of Liberty, USA

The Statue of Liberty is in New York City, United States. It is a very big statue and a symbol of freedom for many people. It is green, made of copper, and it stands on a small island. The statue holds a torch in one hand and a book in the other. Many tourists take a boat to visit the island and see the statue up close. You can also climb to the top to see a great view of the city. It is a very famous monument in North America. It is a perfect place to learn about American history and culture. If you visit New York, you should definitely go to see this amazing, historic, and beautiful monument.

South America: Machu Picchu, Peru

Machu Picchu is a famous ancient city in the mountains of Peru. It was built by the Inca civilization a long time ago. It is located high in the Andes mountains, surrounded by green forests and clouds. People travel from all over the world to walk the trails and see these stone buildings. The view is absolutely spectacular and very peaceful. You can see llamas walking around the area. It is a mysterious and magical place to explore. If you love nature and history, you will enjoy visiting Machu Picchu. It is one of the most important tourist attractions in South America. It is a beautiful place that shows the incredible skill and art of the ancient Inca people.

Europe. The Eiffel Tower, France

The Eiffel Tower is in Paris, the capital of France. It is one of the most famous towers in the world. It is made of iron and it is very tall. Many people like to visit the tower during the day or at night when it has many beautiful lights. You can go to the top of the tower to see the whole city of Paris. Around the tower, there is a large park where you can sit and have a picnic. It is a very romantic and special place for travelers. Many people call Paris "the city of light" because of places like this. Visiting the Eiffel Tower is a dream for many people who love art, history, and travel.

