Road to learning English

Complete using present simple or continuous

One very easy thing you can do is to _____ (change) the language to English on your phone, laptop or tablet. That way, you're _____ (read) everything in English every day and you _____ (learn) a lot of vocabulary without really noticing. I _____ (find)it really helpful.

Pick the right option

My tip is to _____things that you already like doing but in English, so, for example, if you are _____in a sport, you can read about it in English, or if you like the cinema, _____films in English with subtitles.

Complete using past simple improve - help - speak - not speak

The thing that really _____ me to improve my English was having an Australian boyfriend. He _____ any Hungarian so we _____ English all the time and I _____ really quickly.

Pick between a, an or -

I think that learning __ vocabulary is very important, so I got __app on my phone. It has __lot of useful words, all in various categories, but it also lets me add my own words and phrases, too. The best thing is that I can test myself whenever I get __ quiet moment, like on the bus, and it just takes __ couple of minutes.

Complete with the emojis

My tip is to _____ 🎤 songs in _____ 🗽. First I find the words _____ 🌐and try to understand them, then I go to _____ ▶️ and sing along with the singer and try to copy the way he or she does it- I think its fantastic for pronunciation..

Complete the text (there are extra words)

work - describe - buy - practice - talk - need - call - speak _____ saying things in your head. It could be anything. You could _____ your job or your holiday plans, or _____ about yourself or your family or what's happening in the news. Then, when you really _____ to _____ English it's easier because you've done it in your head.

LIVEWORKSHEETS