The Baker – Story

Every morning, Asha walks to the bakery with her mother. Her mother is a baker. She wakes up very early to make fresh food for everyone. Before she starts work, she wears a chef's hat and an apron. She mixes flour, sugar, eggs, butter, and milk to make bread, cakes, cookies, buns, and muffins. Then she carefully puts the food into a hot oven to bake. Soon, the bakery smells warm and delicious.

Many people visit the bakery to buy fresh bread and tasty cakes. Some people buy cakes for birthdays, while others buy bread for breakfast. Asha likes to help her mother by arranging the bread and cookies on the shelves. Her mother always keeps the bakery clean and greets every customer with a smile. She works hard every day to make fresh and healthy food. People thank her because they enjoy the delicious bread and cakes she makes. Asha is proud of her mother because she helps many people in the community. She dreams of becoming a baker one day and making delicious treats that bring happiness to everyone.

Fill in the Blanks

1. Asha's mother is a _____.
2. She works in a _____.
3. Before working, she wears a chef's _____.
4. She also wears an _____.
5. She uses _____ to make bread and cakes.
6. The food is baked in an _____.
7. Many people buy bread for _____.
8. Asha helps by arranging bread on the _____.
9. The baker keeps the bakery _____.
10. Asha wants to become a _____ one day.

LIVEWORKSHEETS